

#WhyWIISMatters Twitter Event

Dear friends,

Happy New Year!

As we start 2014, we want to hear from you. Throughout the year, we will be asking your opinion on a given theme. On February 5th, we would like WIIS members and supporters to take to Twitter and tell us why WIIS matters and what topics you would like WIIS to address in 2014.

Below are some sample Tweets using #WhyWIISMatters. Feel free to use these, alter them, and/or create your own!

- This year I will continue to work for the #WomenPeaceSecurity agenda #WhyWIISMatters
- In 2014 we should resolve to include more women on panels discussing peace and security #WhyWIISMatters
- This year I hope to see further implementation of #UNSCR1325 #WhyWIISMatters
- In 2014 I resolve to help forward female leadership in the peace and security field #WhyWIISMatters
- @_____, tell me #WhyWIISMatters to you in 2014!
- @_____, how are you going to support the women, peace and security agenda in 2014? #WhyWIISMatters

Don't forget to invite your friends to participate and to tweet at others you think should share the reasons they think WIIS and the women, peace and security agenda matter in 2014!

Best Wishes,
The WIIS Team
